

Maasai Association Goats and Cows Gift Form

Dear supporter,

The Maasai people depend on cows and goats for a living. This program helps families to rebuild their lives after a devastating drought. The cow, for example, will provide milk and cheese for the family. When needed, the cow can be sold to provide tuition for a Maasai child in school. The cost for a goat is $40, while the cost for a cow is $150. You'll receive acknowledgement letter from us soon when we receive your form. The Maasai Association will keep you informed with the happenings of our projects. Mail this form to us at the address listed below this page. Thank you for supporting our cause.
